CHILD PROTECTION POLICY

Sei Shin Kan School of Karate & Black Mountains Taijiquan Academy believe that it is always unacceptable for any person to experience abuse of any kind, especially when a child or young person is involved and recognises its responsibility to safeguard the welfare of all children and young people, by a commitment to practice which protects them. Sei Shin Kan School of Karate & Black Mountains Taijiquan Academy recognise that:

- The welfare of the child/young person is paramount
- All children, regardless of age, disability, gender, racial heritage, religious belief, sexual orientation or identity, have the right to equal protection from all types of harm or abuse
- Working in partnership with children, young people, parents, carers and agencies is essential in promoting young people's welfare.

THE PURPOSE OF THE POLICY:

- To provide protection for the children and young people who receive the services of Sei Shin Kan School of Karate & Black Mountains Taijiquan Academy.
- To provide instructors, students, parents and volunteers with guidance on procedures they should adopt in the event that they suspect a child or young person may be experiencing, or be at risk of, harm. This policy applies to all students (adult and child) and volunteers engaged with Sei Shin Kan School of Karate & Black Mountains Taijiquan Academy.

SEI SHIN KAN SCHOOL OF KARATE & READING TAIJQUAN ACADEMY WILL SEEK TO SAFEGUARD CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE BY:

- Valuing them, listening to and respecting them
- Adopting child protection guidelines through procedures and a code of conduct for all students and volunteers
- Sharing information about child protection and good practice with children, parents, students and volunteers
- Sharing information about concerns with agencies who need to know, and involving parents and children appropriately

Sei Shin Kan School of Karate & Black Mountains Taijiquan Academy is committed to reviewing the policy and good practice annually.
